

Emotional Support/Psychiatric Service Animal Request

When flying on Delta, we welcome travelers with service or emotional support animals in the aircraft cabin. We require customers traveling with a psychiatric service/emotional support animal to obtain documentation from their medical or mental health professional.

These forms must be submitted at least 48 hours before your flight, meeting the following guidelines:

- This form is valid for one year from the date the licensed medical or mental health professional treating the Delta customer has signed this form
- Other documentation may be required for travel entering or exiting certain domestic or international locations
- Service animals must be leashed or otherwise restrained by carrier or tether and remain under the control of their owner for the duration of the flight
- Animals must not obstruct an aisle or other area that must remain unobstructed to facilitate an emergency evacuation
- Animals must remain in the customer's personal seat/foot space at all times during flight
- If an animal carrier will be used, it must meet the approved guidelines and fit under the aircraft seat

Instructions

1. Complete and sign the following PDF forms
2. Go to delta.com/mytrips to complete the service request form
3. Attach the completed forms as part of your service request to bring a Service or Emotional Support Animal
